- Current consensus estimate for 2015 U.S. housing starts is currently 1.13 million, up about 13% from 1.00 million in 2014.
- Long-term demand fundamentals expected to support recovery in U.S. housing to 1.4 to 1.5 million starts over next few years.
- Optimistic that we can continue to grow revenue and earnings with improvement in the general economy and new residential construction:
 - Continued improvements in manufacturing operations from our BIC management process
 - Growth in EWP sales as single-family new residential construction activity increases
 - Growth in BMD's revenues and earnings with increased new construction and repair-and-remodel activity
